

JOIN OUR RETINA SURGERY GROUP

Use your experience as a retina surgery patient to help others

MEETING

The group meets three times a year, on-line
and in person.

Patients, family and friends welcome

PIONEERING RESEARCH

Get the latest information on new research projects, and use your experiences to give thoughts and ideas on how to enhance projects

WHO CAN JOIN

No qualifications or research experience required. You just need to have had retina surgery, or be a family member or friend of a loved one that has

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Email: foundation@liverpoolft.nhs.uk Telephone: 0151 706 4291

This Retina Surgery Group is a Patient and Public Involvement Group organised in association with the British and Eire Association of Vitreoretinal Surgeons (BEAVRS) and this department. The aim of this research is to deliver high quality patient care.

St Paul's Eye Research Foundation is leading the Retina Surgery Group initiative for BEAVRS.